NEW GRAND THEATRE,
SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH,
H. F. McGARVIE, LESSEE AND MANAGER.

(COPY.)

Salt Lake City, Oct. 16, 1897.

Solon Spiro, Esq.

Gen. Mgr. The Liquidating Syndicate,

Nos. 17 & 19 E. First South St. City.

Dear Sir:

According to our agreement, I have set aside for the use of the Liquidating Syndicate, Fifteen Hundred (1500) tickets to the New Grand Theatre during the week of October 18th, 1897, when the "English Rose" will be presented for the first time in this city with our full company. The understanding being that these tickets are not to be used to exceed two hundred and fifty daily.

Your order on me properly signed will entitle the holder to an admission and seat.

Yours truly,

Lessee and Manager.

STAMPEDE OF BARGAIN-SEEKERS

And we intend to make you our
Patrons by giving

LATEST PRODUCTIONS AND BEST ASSORTMENTS IN EVERY DEPARTMENT at

QUICK SALE PRICES

Life is too short to fill our announcements with a long, tiresome list of prices. You know what you want and you know when it is sold to you at bargain prices, and in order to be up-to-date and leaders we have inaugurated a GENUINE LIQUIDATION SALE—it's new here, but Salt Lakers are quick to appreciate a good thing when they see it.

The large crowds of buyers attending our sale daily has made no inroad upon our stock; we have plenty in reserve, and equipped ourselves to "stand the run"—and this week have some new novelties and staples to please you with.

3 Carloads of Stoves and Ranges

Just arrived and it will pay you to visit this department and get our prices.
